* Insurance premiums are deducted from the client's account balance and they should be aware that these premiums could erode their retirement savings. Premium rates are charged based on age, gender, smoker status and occupation class. Clients who are smokers and classed as Heavy Blue collar will have the most expensive premium rates.

Age limits

- Minimum commencement age: 15 years of age at joining or application for all types of cover
- Maximum commencement age: 66 years of age at joining or application for TPD cover and 74 years of age at joining or application for Death cover
- Maximum commencement age: 64 years of age at joining or application for Income Protection cover

Please note, cover ceases when a client reaches age 75 (for Death cover), 67 (for TPD cover) and 65 (for IP)

Eligibility Criteria

The client:

- has an IOOF Personal Super account; and
- in respect of IP cover, is working on average at least 15 hours per week.

Exclusions

For requested Death (including Terminal Illness) and TPD cover, no benefit will be payable where a claim arises from:

- suicide occurring in the first 13 months after the date that the cover commences or is reinstated after having lapsed for any reason;
- TPD as a result of an intentional self-inflicted act or intentional self-inflicted injury by the client; or
- any exclusion or restriction the Insurer may apply to the client as a condition of acceptance of cover.

For Income Protection cover, no benefit will be payable where the client's disability arises from any of the following:

- intentional self-inflicted injury;
- uncomplicated pregnancy or childbirth;
- war or acts of war whether declared or not;

- service in the armed forces of any national or international organisation (other than non-active service within Australian armed forces reserve units within Australia) where the service was in the five years prior to the Date of Disablement; or
- any exclusion or restriction the Insurer may apply to the client as a condition of acceptance of cover.

Other terms and conditions may apply. For further details refer to the Insurance Guide available online.

Retail Insurance cover

Retail insurance cover is suitable for clients who have a financial adviser and are seeking Death (including Terminal Illness), TPD and/or IP cover from one or more of the following insurance providers:

- AIA Australia;
- TAL;
- Zurich Australia;
- MLC Limited.

All retail insurance is subject to individual underwriting and clients may be ineligible for cover if they do not meet the eligibility criteria for the insurance product selected. Eligibility criteria differs between the various retail policies available but factors that may impact eligibility include:

- age;
- employment status;
- occupation; and
- residency status.

Other product specific benefit exclusions can differ between various retail policies and are set out in the PDS for the relevant retail insurance product. These will apply in addition to individual exclusions or restrictions the Insurer may apply as a condition of acceptance of cover.

Clients should consider the PDS and TMD of the insurance product selected for further information and obtain advice from their financial adviser.

This cover is suitable for clients who:

- Meet the age limits and the eligibility criteria outlined below;
- Seek insurance cover types and amounts tailored to meet their individual needs or circumstances (noting that Death and TPD cover is generally suitable for clients who are seeking a lump sum benefit to be paid in the event of death, total and permanent disablement or terminal illness, whereas IP cover is generally suitable for clients who are seeking a regular monthly benefit that replaces a portion of their income while they are off work due to illness or injury);
- Have a tolerance for insurance premiums that may reduce their retirement account balance*;
- Are willing to undergo an assessment conducted by the Insurer in relation to health and medical history, occupation, pursuits and pastimes to obtain insurance cover, and are willing to accept restrictions, loadings or exclusions determined by the Insurer following that assessment; or are transferring to IOOF Personal Super from IOOF Employer Super, or another super fund (and cover is eligible to be automatically transferred);
- Are engaged in an occupation for which the Insurer provides insurance cover (refer to the Occupation Guide and where an occupation is not listed, the Insurer will make an assessment);
- For TPD, are employed (or seeking to be employed), noting that if an insured person is unemployed at the date of disability a more restrictive TPD definition may apply (refer to page 24 of the Insurance Guide for further details); and
- For IP, are working at least 15 hours per week and want a waiting period of 30 days, 60 days or 90 days, and a benefit period of either two years, five years or to age 65.

*Insurance premiums are deducted from the client's account balance and they should be aware that these premiums could erode their retirement savings. Premium rates are charged based on age, gender, smoker status and occupation class. Clients who are smokers and classed as Heavy Blue collar will have the most expensive premium rates.

This cover is not suitable for clients who:

- Do not have a tolerance for insurance premiums that may reduce their retirement account balance;
- Seek automatic insurance cover without health or medical assessment;
- Are ineligible for underwritten cover on the basis of medical history, occupation (for example, hazardous occupations), pursuits and pastimes;
- For TPD cover, are unemployed or not seeking to be employed and seeking an unrestricted TPD definition (refer to page 24 of the Insurance Guide for further details);
- For IP cover, are not working on average at least 15 hours per week;
- For IP cover, are eligible to receive income from other sources (such as another insurance policy or from their employer) in the event they suffer an illness or injury, noting that such income will reduce the benefit they may be entitled to receive under the Group Life Insurance cover; or
- Are seeking cover for any benefit which is subject to any of the exclusions as outlined below.

Age limits

- Minimum commencement age: 15 years of age at joining or application for all types of cover
- Maximum commencement age: 66 years of age at joining or application for TPD cover and 74 years of age at joining or application for Death cover
- Maximum commencement age: 64 years of age at joining or application for Income Protection cover

Note, cover ceases when a client reaches age 75 (for Death cover), 67 (for TPD cover) and 65 (for IP)

Eligibility Criteria

The client:

- has an IOOF Personal Super account;
- in respect of IP cover, is working on average at least 15 hours per week.

Exclusions

For voluntary Death (including Terminal Illness) and TPD cover, no benefit will be payable where a claim arises from:

- suicide occurring in the first 13 months after the date that the cover commences or is reinstated after having lapsed for any reason;
- TPD as a result of an intentional self-inflicted act or intentional self-inflicted injury by the client; or
- any exclusion or restriction the Insurer may apply to the client as a condition of acceptance of cover.

For Income Protection cover, no benefit will be payable where the client's disability arises from any of the following:

- intentional self-inflicted injury;
- uncomplicated pregnancy or childbirth
- war or acts of war whether declared or not;
- service in the armed forces of any national or international organisation (other than non-active service within Australian armed forces reserve units within Australia) where the service was in the five years prior to the Date of Disablement; or
- any exclusion or restriction the Insurer may apply to the client as a condition of acceptance of cover.

Retail Insurance cover

Access to a range of retail insurance policies is available to clients who have a financial adviser and are seeking Death (including Terminal Illness), TPD and/or IP cover.

All retail insurance is subject to individual underwriting and clients may be ineligible for cover if they do not meet the eligibility criteria for the insurance product selected. Eligibility criteria differs between the various retail policies available but factors that may impact eligibility include:

- age;
- employment status;
- occupation; and
- residency status.

Other product specific benefit exclusions can differ between various retail policies and are set out in the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) for the relevant retail insurance product. These may apply in addition to individual exclusions or restrictions the Insurer may apply as a condition of acceptance of cover.

Clients should consider the PDS and TMD of the insurance product selected for further information and obtain advice from their financial adviser.

Appropriateness of the target market

This product is likely to be consistent with the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of the class of clients in the target market. This is based on an analysis that the key features and attributes of IOOF Personal Super:

- have previously benefited target market clients in the past and continues to do so; and
- fulfil a need for clients who are looking for a convenient superannuation solution that can be taken from job to job and through to retirement without realising capital gains and other transfer costs.

The IOOF Personal Super TMD will be reviewed as specified below to ensure it continues to be suitable for clients in the target market.

Distribution Channels

This product can be distributed via a financial adviser or direct retail.

Distributor Reporting

Significant Dealings Reporting

Distributors are required to notify the issuer if they become aware of a significant dealing in the product that is not consistent with the TMD.

The issuer will rely on notifications of significant dealings to monitor and review the product, this TMD, and its distribution strategy, and to meet its own obligation to report significant dealings to ASIC.

Dealings outside this TMD may be significant because:

- they represent a material proportion of the overall distribution conduct carried out by the distributor in relation to the product, or
- they constitute an individual transaction which has resulted in, or will or is likely to result in, significant detriment to the client (or class of client).

In each case, the distributor should have regard to:

- the actual or potential harm to a client,
- the nature and extent of the inconsistency of distribution with the TMD (including an explanation of why the dealings occurred outside the target market),
- the date range of when the significant dealing occurred,
- the number of clients impacted by the significant dealing (i.e. the number of clients who are not in the target market (or who have been excluded from the target market) as a proportion of all clients who have acquired the product), and
- the time period in which these acquisitions outside the target market occurred.

The reporting period is as soon as practicable but no later than 10 business days after becoming aware of the significant dealing.

Complaints Reporting

The distributor will provide details of the number and nature of complaints relating to product design, product availability and distribution, having regard to privacy.

The distributor should provide details as soon as practicable but no later than 10 business days following the end of the calendar quarter.
