Target Market Determination

5 October 2021

This Target Market Determination (TMD) has been prepared and issued by IOOF Investment Services Ltd (Operator, IISL) (ABN 80 007 350 405, AFSL 230703), as the issuer of Rhythm Investment.

This TMD seeks to offer clients and distributors an understanding of the class of clients for which Rhythm Investment has been designed, having regard to the objectives, financial situation and needs of the target market.

It applies to the Rhythm Investment product referred to in the Investor Directed Portfolio Service Guide (IDPS Guide) available at www.ioof.com.au

It is not an IDPS Guide and is not to be treated as a full summary of the product's terms and conditions and is not intended to provide financial advice. This document does not take into account any person's individual objectives, financial situation or needs. Clients must refer to the IDPS Guide and any supplementary documents when making a decision about the product.

Rhythm Investment provides a contemporary administration solution combining flexible technology with a superior customer experience. Rhythm Investment offers a wide selection of managed funds, managed portfolios which include separately managed accounts and managed discretionary accounts, term deposits, Australian Listed Securities and a cash account.

Reporting

Significant Dealings Reporting

Distributors are required to notify the issuer if they become aware of a significant dealing in the product that is not consistent with the TMD.

The issuer will rely on notifications of significant dealings to monitor and review the product, this TMD, and its distribution strategy, and to meet its own obligation to report significant dealings to ASIC.

Dealings outside this TMD may be significant because:

- they represent a material proportion of the overall distribution conduct carried out by the distributor in relation to the product, or
- they constitute an individual transaction which has resulted in, or will or is likely to result in, significant detriment to the client (or class of client).

In each case, the distributor should have regard to:

- the actual or potential harm to a client,
- the nature and extent of the inconsistency of distribution with the TMD (including an explanation of why the dealings occurred outside the target market),
- the date range of when the significant dealing occurred,
- the number of clients impacted by the significant dealing (i.e. the number of clients who are not in the target market (or who have been excluded from the target market) as a proportion of all clients who have acquired the product), and
- the time period in which these acquisitions outside the target market occurred.

The reporting period is as soon as practicable but no later than 10 business days after becoming aware of the significant dealing.

Complaints

The distributor will provide details of the number and nature of complaints relating to product design, product availability and distribution, having regard to privacy.

The distributor should provide details as soon as practicable but no later than 10 business days following the end of the calendar quarter.
